Registration & Continental Breakfast

9:30-9:35 am

Welcome and Opening Remarks

Program: Contract Negotiation Skills

9:35-10:30 am

At some point in our careers we will have to negotiate a contract, such as with a vendor or a potential new hire. What are the skills required to insure the best deal? With this program, you will learn how to approach contract negotiations, what to request, and how to build confidence in getting what you want. Stinson Mundy, from Linden Legal Solutions, will lead this discussion and provide us with tips and tricks on how to seal the deal.

Stinson Mundy is a negotiator, lawyer, and moderator. She advises fast growth companies on business structures and contract negotiation strategies. She holds degrees in international history from James Madison University and Durham University in the UK., along with a J.D. from the University of Richmond.

10:30-10:45 am

Break

Program: (More) Mindfulness at Work: Making a Living While Living a Life

10:45–11:45 am

One of our greatest modern-day challenges is finding meaningful fulfillment through our daily work. Mindfulness techniques can help us do just that: transform the hassles, conflicts & anxieties of the workplace into valuable opportunities for personal and professional growth... perhaps even joy! Through discussion & experiential practice, we will learn how mindfulness can help us develop agility, openness & authentic leadership – characteristics that allow us to thrive in the workplace and beyond

Wendy Maines manages Thomson Reuters librarian relationships DC, FL, GA, KY, MD, NC, NY, SC, VA, WV, serving librarian customers for over twenty years. Wendy is a former Legal Division Program Chair for the SLA Annual Conference. She is an active member of several law librarian associations on both national and regional levels. Wendy earned her J.D. from the University of Florida and obtained her M.S.L.S. degree from Catholic University of America.

It is just minutes north of downtown Richmond and is close to many other area attractions, accommodations and dining.

GPS coordinates for Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden

37°37'11.9"N 77°28'14.7"W

Often, the 1800 Lakeside Avenue, Richmond address does not direct visitors to the front entrance. In these cases, we suggest changing “Richmond” to “Henrico” in your GPS for accurate directions.

From Downtown Richmond (I-95 North)

- Note: There is a large brown Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden highway sign just before Exit 80.
- On I-95 North take Exit 80, the Hermitage Road/Lakeside Avenue exit (Virginia State Route 161). Keep to the right and take the right at the first light onto Lakeside Avenue. You'll see two brown Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden signs.
- Follow Lakeside Avenue for 1.6 miles. You will cross the intersection of Lakeside Avenue and Hilliard Road (there is a 7-Eleven on the corner) and the Garden's entrance will be on your left, off of Lakeside Avenue.
- There is a black fence around the Garden and a brick gate with “Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden” and “1800 Lakeside Avenue” on it. Enter through the gate.

From Washington, D.C. (I-95 South)

- Note: There is a large brown Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden highway sign just before Exit 83B.
- From I-95 South take Exit 83B, the Parham Road Rt. 73 West exit.
- On Parham Road, quickly get into your far left lane. There is a small brown Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden sign on the right, but please note you will need to get into the left lane.
- At the second stoplight, take a left onto Brook Road (also known as Route 1 South). There is a small brown Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden sign at this intersection.
- At the third stoplight, take a right onto Lakeside Avenue. At the light you will see a brown Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden sign.
- As you go down Lakeside Avenue, you will see the Garden entrance to your right. This will be just before the intersection with Hilliard Road. There is a black fence and brick gate with “Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden” on it.
- If you cross the intersection of Lakeside and Hilliard (there's a 7-Eleven on the corner), you have gone too far.

From Charlottesville (I-64 East)
